General Info

Irish Fox Stables is a hunter/jumper equestrian center. In addition to offering a year round riding academy (children and adults) it features both group and private lessons. Irish Fox is a full service boarding and training facility that is located on 28 acres bordering the Bush's Wildlife Preserve. It also has a large heated indoor ring (72' by 190') and an outdoor ring (100' by 250') both with angular sand footing.

- Outdoor ring: 100 feet by 250 feet with angular sand footing.
- 40 large stalls attached to the indoor ring (you never have to go out during the winter months) each with its own automatic water system.
- Automated fly control system in the summer.
- Grooming bays and indoor wash rack with hot and cold running water.
- Daily individual turnouts (pairs at owner's request).
- Instruction for the beginner and advanced.
- Heated/air conditioned viewing room and tack room.
- Active at all local shows and select regional shows.
- Manages and runs in house academy shows as well as rated shows at the National Equestrian Center in Lake St Louis.
